

DEMO HEADQUARTERS . . . Curt Smith points to sign which identifies a new Democratic candidate headquarters opening this week at 1874 Torrance Blvd. An open house from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. has been scheduled for Thursday, Smith says. Campaign literature and information on Democratic candidates will be offered at the headquarters. Refreshments will be served tomorrow.

Menveg Backers Claim He Holds Demo Lead for 32nd

As the race for the first state senator from the new 32nd district goes into the home stretch, Lloyd A. Menveg appears to be taking the lead for the Democratic nomination with wide support from labor, business, and Democratic leaders, his campaign directors claimed this morning.

Main plank in Menveg's platform is a reduction in local property taxes by new legislation for uniform state-wide assessment ratios, a property tax ceiling of 1½ per cent of market value, and correction of formulas for distribution of state tax funds for school support and free-ways, which have long been discriminatory against Southern California.

H. E. "Bud" Riddings, vice president of the Long Beach Harbor Commission, is actively supporting Menveg's candidacy. Los Angeles City Councilman John S. Gibson, Jr. and Mrs. Charles J. Colden Sr., widow of the former Congressman from this area, both of San Pedro, are serving as honorary co-chairmen of the Menveg for Senate Committee.

LOCAL CAMPAIGN leaders include Democratic State Committeeman James D. MacDonald and Robert (Bob) Hillier of Wilmington, Mrs. Arthur J. (Pat) Miller of Gardena and Torrance, and Charles Dean Virden of Torrance.

Additional labor endorsements of Menveg were announced this week by the United Steelworkers of America, Local 6700; Sailors Union of the Pacific; Sheet Metal Workers, Local 108; Culinary Workers, Local 512; United Rubber Workers, Local 458.

Previous endorsement include United Auto Workers, Local 887; Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 11; Machinists & Aerospace Workers (IAMAW), statewide; and the National Maritime Union.

JOINING OTHER labor leaders in personal endorsements this week of Lloyd Menveg for state senator are Patrick J. McDonald, business representative of the District Council of Carpenters; Ray Wampler, business agent of the Pile Drivers Union, Wilmington; Charles Warda, secretary-treasurer of the Bar-tenders Union, Local 591; and Homer Sullivan, business manager of the Lumbermen & Sawmill Workers, Local 1407.

E. P. "Pat" O'Malley, vice president of the California Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO, announced his support of Menveg earlier this month, as did Louis Stango, vice president of the Southern California District Council of Marine Clerks, and Charles W. Zies, chairman of the Switchmen's Union of North America, Local 164.

Lloyd Menveg, a third generation native son of this district, is a State Ship Brokers Commissioner and former eight-year president of the Los Angeles Harbor Commission. He is a businessman and homeowner of Wilmington, and active in many civic, service and veterans organizations.

Joseph Bruno Seeks Democratic Support

Joseph C. Bruno, who calls himself a "new breed Democrat," and "the thinking man's Democrat," is among those seeking nomination on the Democratic ticket next Tuesday in the 32nd Senate District.

Bruno, who lives at 1227 W. 245th St. in Harbor City, is a former professional musician now teaching in Los Angeles secondary schools.

He was graduated from California State College at Los Angeles in the top ten of a class of more than 1,200 and has attended New York University, UCLA, and the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music.

Before joining the Los Angeles district nine years ago, he taught music for five years at the Westlake College.

Many of his students in jazz composition and music arranging now are well known in the music and recording industry.

In the late 1940s, he led his own recording band under the professional name of Jerry Brent.

An active member of three unions at present, Bruno boasts a total union membership of 76 years, including American Federation of Teachers, American Federation of Musicians; Local 353, Long Beach Musicians; Local 802, New York City Musicians; and Paper Workers Local 447 of New York, of which he was a charter member.

Bruno has been active in California politics at every level from grass roots to managing a Congressional candidate's campaign. He currently is co-chairman of the California Citizens' Committee for Honest Government.

Bruno and his wife, Lee, have two children, a daughter, Darylle, a junior in college, and a son, Randy, a junior at Narbonne High School.

Secretary at West High Earns Honor

Genevieve Ramirez of West High School is among the educational secretaries in the nation this year who have qualified for a professional standards certificate issued by the National Association of Educational Secretaries. Mrs. Ramirez is secretary to the principal, Dr. Robert Ford.

The professional standards program recognizes the experience, education, and professional activity of office personnel in education. Achievement in the program indicates an interest in continuing education and personal commitment to the Association's four-fold concept of service, information, fellowship, and recognition.

Since the program's inception ten years ago, only 987 educational secretaries from 39 states have earned such awards.

The National Association of Educational Secretaries, sponsor of the professional standards program, is a department of the National Education Association.
